Our value of Love in action…

Please give a mention and a thanks to the Year 5 children who helped, encouraged and looked after Sidney at the park.

I'm just so proud and grateful that my girls, and eventually Sidney, go to a school where everyone looks out for and cheers each other on and Sidney really enjoyed being the centre of attention and having a chance to achieve new things with their help. It was lovely to see him in such safe hands.

Nicola

Birthday Books!

Thank you to everyone who celebrated their birthday with a birthday book last year! We would like to continue the celebrations this academic year. Please find a reminder below of what it involves and why we celebrate with books.

What does it involve?

When it is your child's birthday, your child is invited to bring a book to school to donate to their classroom library. This book will be read (or some of it for longer books) during story time on your child's birthday. We understand that not all families may be able to donate a book to school and therefore, children will still be invited to choose the story of the day on their birthday, regardless of whether they bring a book in or not.

Why?

- To promote reading for pleasure across the school
- To add to our classroom libraries
- As a way of acknowledging and celebrating your child's birthday

Loving God,

Thank You for our school community and for the many ways we learn, grow and thrive together.
Help us to live out our value of love each day. Teach us to be kind in our words, caring in our actions, and thoughtful towards everyone we meet. May we show patience when things are difficult, forgiveness when mistakes are made, and compassion to those who need our help.
Bless our pupils, staff, families and governors. Help us to celebrate one another's strengths, support one another through challenges, and create a school where everyone feels welcomed, valued and loved.
May our school be a place where friendship flourishes, respect is shown, and love guides all that we do.

Amen.

A very Happy Birthday to those who celebrate their birthday this week:

Faith C, Rome E, Theo E, Ella R, Jack H, Victoria M, Clara S

Happy Birthday from all at CBS!
