Leopards– 268

Pumas—310

Well done Tigers for earning the most dojos this week!

SPECIAL MENTION

Well done and congratulations to:

Ivy for achieving her first karate grading

Alexander for getting First Touch Football player of the day

Edward for winning the Kudos Athletics star of the day

Arnoud for being awarded a Sports Blue Peter Badge for Road cycling

Sean Perkins—Author Visit

On Thursday, Years R-3 were lucky enough to be joined by author and illustrator, Sean Perkins. He visited us to share his new book - Oscar and Ben and The Sleepover. We enjoyed the story time and even a singsong with Sean! We also got to meet Oscar and Sam - two very cheeky cats from the series! Some of us even got to meet him after assembly and got our very own copies of his book signed.

Thank you to Sean for taking the time to share his wonderful book with us!

Year 6—Golf Simulator Experience

On Wednesday we did a golf simulator. We were coached by Pedro and Ales. We learned to use a driver and a putter and then we had a competition to see who could get closest to the hole. After that we used a driver to see who could drive the ball the furthest
Afterwards we played a game where we had to hit the ball towards cars, it was a really fun game! Overall we had a really great time and really enjoyed ourselves

Year R—People who are special to us

The children had a great time sharing pirate activities with their family member on Tuesday. It was lovely to see them all so happy and engaged. A big well done to all of our Year R children on their first class assembly. We are very proud of you! Love Miss Candy, Mrs Wynn and Mrs Groves x

Cricket Matches

16th June, CBS vs Chartridge

Players: Bhavin, Freddie, Daniel, Gavin, William, Dylan, Anisha, Isabel
Score: - CBS– 90 runs, Chartridge 42 runs

This was our first match and we played against Chartridge who were a very good team. We tried our best and enjoyed the game although the sun was constantly burning down on us making it extremely

18th June, CBS vs Ivingswood

Players: Bhavin, Freddie, Gavin, William, Dylan, Anisha, Isabel
Score: - CBS– 53 runs, Chartridge 456runs

We batted first. Anisha and Freddie went out to bat first followed by William and Daniel. Daniel hit 2 fours and ran well. Then Dylan and Gavin came on and scored 4 fours and a brilliant six. Finally Bhavin and Isabel came on , they ran lots of quick singles and hit quite a few boundaries as well. While fielding we did quite well, getting lots of run outs. Freddie did especially well getting 2 wickets and run outs.

Dear God,

Thank you for our world and for the people in it. We think about the news we have heard this week.

Well done to England who won their first match 4-2 against Croatia on Wednesday. We are sending lots of good wishes as we aspire for them to win the World Cup. We hope Scotland win their second match tonight.

We pray for all children who have had harm to their wellbeing through social media and hope they get all the support they need.

Help people get together and celebrate lots of different community events like the watermelon run in Japan or the iceberg optical illusion bridge in Paris.

It was teacher appreciation day last Wednesday, we say thank you to all our teachers and everyone who looks after us in school, and we appreciate all their hard work and dedication.

Lastly, we want to wish our fathers a Happy Father's Day, we hope they have an amazing weekend and have a chance to relax and get some peace and quiet.

Help us to be part of that kindness every day.

Amen.

A very Happy Birthday to those who celebrate their birthday this week:

Wiliam B, Megan M, Iris W, Mikail A, Evans M, Joshua L, Daisy M, Eli R, Noah R, Arno W, Mila Y-P, Karoline B, Ronnie D

Happy Birthday from all at CBS!
